

Class 7th

Civics ch-4

Que1)What was a very important activity on the Samoan islands in the 1920s?

Answer: Fishing was a very important activity on the Samoan Islands in the 1920s.

Que2). How was the girls' school in Madhya Pradesh in the 1960s designed differently from the boys' school?

Answer: Girls' school had a central courtyard where girls played in total seclusion and safety from the outside world. The boys school had no such courtyard.

09:29 ✓✓

Que3)What do we teach boys and girls in their early childhood?

Answer: We teach boys that they need to be tough and masculine. On the contrary, we, teach girls that they need to be soft and mild.

Que4) Why did Harmeet develop a notion that her mother did not work?

Answer: In our societies, the work that women do within the home is not recognised as work. It is assumed that this is something that comes naturally to women. It is therefore, Harmeet developed such notions and said that her mother did not work

09:31 ✓✓

Que5) How are domestic workers treated by their employers?

Answer: Domestic workers are often not treated well by their employers. Despite the hard work they do, their employers often do not show them much respect.

Que6) What do you mean by the term 'double burden'?

Answer: Several women today work both inside and outside the home. This is often referred to as 'double burden'.

09:33 ✓✓

Que7)Why do parents give boys and girls different toys to play with?

Answer:

Parents give different toys to the boys and girls because of a thinking of discrimination on the ground of sex. They think that girls are soft and mild and are unable to do the work as boys can.

Que8)What do boys and girls get taught in their early childhood?

Answer:

In the childhood boys and girls are taught that the boys should be strong and girls should be mild. They will have to perform different roles in the future.