

20/4/21

L=1
An Advice

* Answer the following questions →

Q-1 What are the four qualities which the poet advises the children to have more?

Ans-1 The four qualities are patience, devotion, tolerance and emotions.

Q-2 What are the four evils which the poet advises the children to give up?

Ans-2 The four evils are greed, pride, anger and strife.

Q-3 Whom does the poet address in the poem?

Ans-3 In the poem the poet addresses the children.

Q-4 Do the children not have patience, devotion, tolerance and emotions at all?

Ans-4 Children have all qualities they just need to follow them.

Q-5 How can we lead a better life?

Ans-5 We can lead a better life by adopting the advice ~~given~~ given by the poet.