

Lesson-7 The temperate grasslands, the prairies

Very short Q/Ans

Q (1) Name the important rivers of the prairies grasslands.

Ans Mississippi and Missouri.

Q 2 Which term is used for the large cattle farms?

Ans Ranches is used for the large cattle farms.

Q 3 Where is the prairies located?

Ans The prairies is located in the interior of North America.

Q 4 Name the main crops of the prairies region.

Ans Wheat, barley, Maize, Ray, Oats, Cotton, alpha alpha, Soyabeans and Potatoes.

Short Q/Ans —

Q-1 Why are the machines used for farming in USA?

Ans The machines are used for farming in USA as the people have big developed farms, and by use of better methods they can produce more by utilizing their rich natural resource.

Q-2 What are ranches and where are they located?

Ans Ranches are the big and large cattle farms where cattles are reared. These are located in the interior of North America in the Northern Hemisphere.

Q-3 Give a short account on the life of the people of Prairies grassland.

Ans They are very hardworking. They have successfully adopted technology to utilize their rich natural resources. Use of scientific methods of cultivation has made them a surplus food producers.

Q-4 What do you know about the location of the Prairies?

Ans Prairies are located in the interior of North America in the Northern Hemisphere. It extends from Canada to Mexico.

Give reasons →

Q-1 'People migrated from Europe cleared the grasses of Prairies'.

Ans → People migrated from Europe cleared the grasses of Prairies to cultivate the land because the climate is good for growth and there is availability of water in plenty from rivers for cultivation.

Q-2 'A local wind chinook affects the prairies grassland'

Ans A local wind chinook affects the Prairies grassland as there is absence of North South barrier. Moderate rainfall occurs in summer so chinook the local wind affects the grassland which blows in this region.